MR. THATCHER'S STARTLING EXPOSE.

Around by Members of the Juries of Awards-A Proposition Rejected-The Alfidavit.

Werld's Fair Grounds, Chicago, aug 29.—The knowledge that another award had been offered to an exhibitor at the exposition for a stipulated sum was made known yesterday afternoon in the national commission by John Boyd Thatcher, chairman of the executive committee on awards. Mr Thatcher appeared in the commission about 8 o'clock and stated that he had changed his mind and determined to let the public help him in the matter he was about to bring before the commission. He then stated that be had heard rumors of irregularities in the work of the judges in some departments for some time, but they had been so indefinite that he could not trace them to any source. He had, however, managed to trace and report upon the last case, which reached him Saturday.

commission. It contained first a letter from M: Thatcher to the president of the commission, which is as follows:

The affidavit recites that about August 14 a man called at the exhibit of the Carey Safe Co. Limited, of Chicago, and after stating that he was a judge, one of the jurors of awards, asked Mr. Carey what the first prize sould be worth to his company.

"I told him it would be worth a tinues: "He said I want to say some-thing and I want it regarded as confi-dental If it is worth anything to you to have the first prize, let me tell you something. We have picked out three or four big firms here to which we are willing to give the first prize in we are willing to give the first prize in their classes. Commissioner Ryan, of North Da-kota, stated that several exhibitors who were 'not in it" at the fair had who were not in it at the fair had determined to secure a medal in some manner, and they would persecute a judge in any way possible when they learned that they had not commended that archibits.

Mr. Thatcher was finally induced by the commissioners, aided by the venerable Isabella Beecher Hooker, who sat near the New Yorker, to mollify his re port to the committee, and he did so by amending it to read: "Suspended from

ABSOLUTELY PURE

When the speaker commanded order at 19 o'clock nearly every seat in the hall was filled, an unmistakeble evidence of the general and individual interest in the matter in hand.

Chapitals Haddaway prayed briefly, and in a very inaudable tone at a distance of more than ten feet from the desk, for an especial gift of wisdom and judgment to rightly settle the great question before the house.

After the reading of the journal, Mr Weaver (N Y) appeared at the bar of the house on the arm of his colleague, Gen Tracey, and was sworn in by the speaker.

The resolution contained in the order of procedure on the after question was reported by the clerk, providing for a vote first upon free colmage of allver at the present ratio of it to!

Ropresentative Helliny (Tex.) asked if, in the event of all the amendments included in the order being defeated, it would be in order to propose on additional amendment germane to the subject. Speaker Crisp replied that as at present advised he would answer no, that the order provides orhaustively all that the house may consider but that when the time name to formally present the question the gentleman from Texas might be heard.

Mr McMillan decired to offer an amendment providing for free coinage of the product of the silver mines of the United States, but Mr Bland objected even to having it read anying that such a proposition was not free solings of silver at the ratio of 10 to 1 it re solited. Year, 122, nays, 295.

Mr Shell (dom, S. C.), in favor of free silver, was paired with Mr Gruham (dem, N Y.), opposed to it.

Not nearly as much interest was taken on the second vote, which was on the ratio of 17 to 1 The decisive vote on the 18 to 1 ratio seemed to disnerten the silver men, and in place of the attention which was paid to the first was substituted a listlessness which was pread throughout the hall. The vote resulted in the defeat of the amendment by a vote of Yeas, 100, navs, 295.

ongrossment and third roading of the bill, and the bill was accordingly ordered to a third reading.

Then Mr Hally raised the point that there should be a division of the question. One part of it repealed the purchasing clause and the other retained the partly clause. Thereshould be a separate vote on each But again the speaker pointed to the decisive order of the resolution under which the house was acting, and sheld "fibt such separation could not be had. The vote was then kaken upon the final passage of the Wilson bill and it was passed Yeas, 80, nays, 110.

The members who stood by silver under the Bland-Allison ace, but who finally voted for unconditional repeal, were Alderson, Black, Brotz, Brookshire, Bian Coan, Docovan, Docittic, Edmunds, Harte, Helman, Hunter, Law son, Lester, Linton, Marshall, McCreary, Ma-Millea, Meredith, Montgemery, Ostas O'Ferrell, Paschal, Painter, Pendieton, Post Prior, Bichardson, Hitchie, Russell Stone Swansen, Taylor, Tucker, Turpin, Tylor, Wolcock and Whiting

Theore were ten uncompromising silver men who voted against even the Blaud act and then against repost. They were Broderick, Can, non, Curtis, Hephura, Loud, Mallory, Marsh, Metskieleion, Smith and/Taylor.

The antistiver mon knew that they were playing a winning gume from the start and the silver men were in the cain of despair and so when this overwhelming majority was shown for the Wilson Mill its obvecates did not include in enthusiastic cheers, but contented the mered the subject on the town of applanse.

THE ACTION OF THE HOUSE New Yoan, Aug. 28.—The stock mar-ket, after a firm opening and frac-tional advances outside of Louisville &

Nashville, which declined 2 per cent, became heavy. Losses varying from % to 1% per cent, were recorded right through the list, but it was noticeable that those hammering the market took are not to lose much stock. After the market sold off it became extremely dull, and the traders seemed disposed to wait for definite news from Washington before taking sides.

As soon as it became known that the silver bill had been voted down in the house by a large majority the complex-ion of affairs underwent a rapid change. Many stocks began scoring advances on the final quotations of Saturday. The net gains were ½ to 3½ per cent., Sugar leading, and some of the low-priced stocks and specialties

Louisville, Ky, Aug. 29.—A special to the Courier-Journal from Savannah, Ga., says: Almost on the anniversary of the great hurricane of 1881 Savannah was swept last night by one of the severest storms it has ever known. The storm, which had been predicted by the weather bureau for several days, began early in the afternoon and increased from then on until it reached the chmax between 11 and 13 o'clock last night, having blown for eight hours in a terrific hurricane. It began raining in the morning, but only in gusts. After the first fall it ceased entirely for several hours, and did not begin again till after noon. Then the work of destruction began and lasted until the storm had spent its force at midnight. CERRIAN FRROWSON, a leading reformer and justice of the peace of Rockford, deliberately and with malice afort-thought threw a stone through the plate glass front of the Star office and was arrested. He didn't like the paper.

A DEMOGRATIC exchange chouts: "But the tariff barons have not stopped rothing the many, the tariff hasa't been touched." But according to the Demogratic theory thy must have stopped robhing, tariff or no tariff, for they have stopped business and the workmen whom the Demogrates and the workmen whom the Demogrates and were not getting a fair divide of profits are out of work.

If the wiver cranks, and other flat money cranks, together with the present generation of demagogues who go about generation of demagogues who go about prejudices, were all buried with the silver purchase law, the country would be free indeed. This time must come, and will in our opinion come speedily, when the honest, loyal laboringmen will have to speak out and disclaim any connection with or sympathy for those so-called laboringmen who attempted to commit them to an endorsement of Gov. Altgeld's anarchist message, and the conduct of the same gang who have assembled to hear anarchistic and socialistic speeches, and after hearing them have indulged in parades in New York, Buffalo, Milwankee and Chicago for the purpose of looting other.

Judge Allen Overrules a Mot

The arguments in the Newby case, or pleted yesterday forencon at Springfield and Judge Ailen overruled the motio and sentenced the defendant to two years in the penitentiary at Chester. Before passing sentence he reviewed the case at come length, stating that the pris oner had had a fair trial and that the dlegations that three of the jurors had talked about the case in an imprope manner were untrue, as they were al nen of good character and had made affidavite directly in opposition to those furnished by counsel for the defendant Newby received his sentence quietly and Connect for Newby at once made a mo tion for an arrest of judgment, but Judge Allen also overruled that, and the prisoner will be taken to Chester to-day. Judge Kramer said that an appral will be made to the supreme court of the United States in the next sixty days and if the decision of the lower court should be reversed and the case remanded the would be furnished. A good deal of sympathy is expressed for Newby, and the sentiment in his favor is as strong as ever. All ideas as to his chances before the supreme court are, of course, mer

The Quaint and Hamely Philosophy Being Non-Expectant. An old gentleman who was noted for his tranquility and generally quiet and unruffled temper, was once asked the secret of his happiness. "I cannot say that I am what one would call happy," he answered, "but I am—well—'nonexpectant' would probably fit the case better than any term I could use. I better than any term I could use. think a great deal of the unhappines of this world comes from expecting im possibilities, therefore I long ago taugh ver came that was not actually evil.

That man lived long and died happy at a good old age. More than this, he was universally respected and loved and was a welcome guest at every fire side where he was acqui this, not alone because he be agreeable and not troublesome, but because he always carried with him a fund of quaint, homely philosophy, which fitted into the chinks of every tive spots of humanity that the buffet-ling of the world touched them too gently to hurt. And yet only theory was contained in words: "Well, well, child, don't expect too much of people and things. And there were always a bit of illustra ated his philosophy, and left their im-pression on the mind of the listener. He never indulged in what might be called "preaching," but was so full of home y commonplaces and what he used 2 call "seven-days-in-the-week patien e," that it was more restful and efresh no than the most brilliant ora tory or the most nutsued discourse.

There are so much health, wealth and peace of mind in the non-expectantides, that one can but wonder that more attention is not given to the propagation of it, and more full explanations of its beauties and blessings Who has not made preparations for journey or an excursion with the high-est anticipation filling the mind, with everything favorable and everybody apparently bent on having the best possible time, only to come back bored and disappointed and almost, if not quite disgusted? It is so easy to be disappointed when once the mind is made up to the prospect of un-interrupted pleasure; so easy to let the brightness of life drift by us while we grumble about our petty misfortunes How much better it would be to cur our capricious hopes and fancies and ake a more reasonable view of things. It is unreasonable and stilly to imagine that matters will always go our way. Indeed when we sit down quietly and look the situation squarely in the face we know that they will not do so; for the course of life is a very crooked and iwisted affair, and its paths are full of thorns and uneven places, and there are many obstacles and allipery steeps along its line. Why, then, is it not more wise to recognize the fact and to salculate accordingly? To realize the uncertainty of all of our plans, and then to take into con-
